Education:

Baylor University: Bachelor of Science Degree: Biology major/Chemistry minor

University of North Texas: Masters' Degree: Film/Theater

Stan Moore is a two-time Emmy Award award-winning filmmaker who has worked in the biz for over 30 years on feature films, music videos and corporate/documentary projects. From work as an actor/stuntman to writer/director, Moore found a niche writing and directing over 200 music videos for rock, Christian and country artists.

His production company, MP Films, has produced over 70 television commercials, 200+ music videos, and 300+ industrial films. The company has completed projects for clients such as IBM, EMI, Focus On The Family, The Magic Johnson Foundation, Sony-BMG, Summit Toys, Thomas Nelson Publishers, Tyndale House Publishers, and Warner Bros. among others. Not only a double Emmy Award winner but also a 5-time Emmy nominee, his films have played at festivals around the world including the American Film Institute, the Hollywood Film Festival, the Houston Film Festival and the Chicago International Film Festival. Moore's documentary work has also been recognized by the Liberty Film Festival in Los Angeles, the Telly Awards, the Hollywood Florida Film Festival, the Ft. Lauderdale Film Festival and numerous others.

Moore has taught creative/media writing, production and acting for TV/film. He was a faculty member at the University of North Texas and Texas Christian University.

He's a former Vice President of the Texas Stuntman's Association working in feature films and live shows.
